

23rd IAAH European Regional Conference

Adolescent health and well-being

– Hope in a time of uncertainty

October 10th-11th 2024 in Copenhagen

We hope to see you in Copenhagen for the 23rd IAAH European Regional Conference hosted by the Nordic Associations for Adolescent Medicine.

We welcome all professionals who serve young people aged 10-25 years. The hosts are healthcare professionals from disciplines including medicine, nursing, and pharmacy, but our quest for young people's optimum wellbeing includes many others, including teachers, physiotherapists, youth workers, psychologists, community health professionals, social care professionals, educators, researchers, policy makers and other stakeholders from all disciplines.

Our call for scientific abstracts is open. Please encourage your colleagues and trainees to share their work with us.
